Click the Lessons tab to access the Lessons page of the Student Dashboard.

The screenshot shows the Reading Plus interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Dashboard, Lessons, Messages, Writing, Parents, and Log Out. The user is identified as Jay Booker, 18th Grade, at Mason-Galeen School. The main area is titled 'Select a program and begin lessons!' and lists three programs: Reading (with 8 more Combos to finish this level), Vocabulary (Master 100 more words to unlock the next level), and Visual Skills. A progress bar shows '7 days, 8 hours left for this week's assignments to be completed'. Below this is a table titled 'Your total assignment completion'.

What to Look for:

- ✓ Ensure that Reading lessons are completed first. Reading lessons supply almost all Reading Plus data and are the highest priority.
- ✓ Celebrate success! For example, congratulate your child on every Reading lesson completed with 80% or higher comprehension.
- ✓ Look for Combos. Your child will earn a Combo when he or she completes two Reading lessons in a row at 80% or higher comprehension. Combos will help your child to move up a Reading level, so celebrate them!
- ✓ Remind students about ReReads. When answering questions in Reading lessons, students can look back at what they read to ReRead it. This helps them pick the right answer. Check to make sure your child is using ReReads.
- ✓ Ensure assignments are done by the end of the weekend. For most schools, assignments reset every Sunday night at midnight.
